

Professional Statement

Cheshta Singh

I am an aspiring cybersecurity professional with a strong interest in identifying vulnerabilities, analysing cyber threats, and developing practical solutions to protect digital environments. I am committed to continuously developing my cybersecurity skills through hands-on learning, practical exercises, and real-world experience. I value ethical responsibility, attention to detail, and continuous improvement, and I aim to contribute to security-focused teams by supporting threat detection, risk mitigation, and effective defensive strategies.